Huntington Federal Savings Bank Sponsors Shred and E-Cycling Event on May 21

(Huntington, W. Va.) – Huntington Federal is sponsoring the Better Business Bureau’s identity theft and fraud prevention event in Huntington, W. Va.

Businesses and individuals from across the area are encouraged to attend and participate in the free Shred and E-Cycle event. The event will be held on May 21st, 2022, from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. The event will take place at Marshall University in the parking lot on the corner of 3rd Ave. and 16th St. (Hal Greer Boulevard). This event offers free access to secure commercial shredding services, as well as disposal of select electronic equipment.

Outdated paper items will be accepted to be commercially shredded such as: bank statements, credit card statements, medical papers, IRS tax records, and other documents containing personal information.

“We’re providing this important service so both individuals and businesses can prevent possible identity theft,” stated Matthew Wagner, president and CEO of Huntington Federal Savings Bank. “By offering the opportunity to have documents commercially shredded, we’re helping the public to be empowered to protect their confidential information.”

Electronics are also being accepted to be E-Cycled. Some accepted electronics are cell phones, computer towers, game consoles, microwaves, printers/copiers, shredders, and VCR's.

Electronics that will not be accepted are TVs, computer monitors, batteries, and light bulbs. The full list of accepted electronics can be found at <https://www.huntingtonfederal.com/shred-e-cycling-event/>.

This event is available to the public for no charge. However, donations are being accepted by the BBB® Charitable and Educational Fund, Inc. Donations are welcomed and appreciated to help ensure events like the Shred & E-Cycle can continue in the future.

The BBB® Charitable & Educational Fund, Inc., is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization that supports the Better Business Bureau's vision of an ethical marketplace, where buyers and sellers can trust and rely upon each other. For more information about the organization, visit
